

Leadership Dialogue:

Conflict, Collaboration & Engagement

A 2-DAY WORKSHOP

In today's business environment, too often collaboration is confused with compromise.

We will teach a level of leadership engagement that goes far beyond compromise and creates space for constructive conflict; the kind that leaves all parties smarter than they were before and results in collaborative solutions to problems that once seemed intractable.

WHEN: November 15-16, 2011

WHERE: Boulder, Colorado

COST: $795.00
